One day there were four children walking alone. They saw a the fish craving Copper Coppe and Copper to a super dupe fly. Fly flying hero. Super hero can help you with anything you want.

The both was changing into a person. He can fly with her power so much as he can. But when you need him you have to shout louder so that he can hear you.

If you are playing with fire you must ~~be~~ ^{know the} fire has rules. It has secrets that they don't know about that.

Copper has a hero that help children every day. They can discover about his secrets. He has a bear that give him some thing to know we can help you with some thing that you don't know with we have rules all of us and super hero also have rules about his bear.

Sometimes he have some grate full powers about his teaching children about some power good of a social scene they need to teach children about super super & dupe hero SA. The end
